Take a special journey with sisters in faith to explore who you are and all you can become in Christ!

The Practical Pursuit of the Miracle Life

Ever wonder if the life you are leading is what God has in mind for you? Jesus called us to live “abundantly,” but what does that mean? Stephanie Edwards, nationally-known broadcaster and Christian speaker, will lead participants through a day of stories, music and scriptural study to better understand how God calls each one of us to the “miracle life” of fullness and joy, with practical tips on how to get there.

Prepare to spend a very special day with sisters in the faith as the Spirit works through ...

About Our Seminar Leader

Based in Southern California, Stephanie Edwards is an award-winning broadcaster who has worked in local and national television, daily talk radio, and as a long-time co-host of the Annual Tournament of Roses Parade with Bob Eubanks. A lifelong Christian and Bible teacher for over 30 years, Stephanie especially enjoys the privilege of using her gifts, abilities and humor to uplift and inspire others with God's word. Over the years, Stephanie has been invited to give testimony at faith events large and small, including The Billy Graham Crusade at Dodger Stadium, Harvest Crusade at Angel Stadium, and The Crystal Cathedral Women's Conference, among many others.
